Wakefield One Wins

The British Council for Offices (BCO) announced its list of the North of England's finest work places today and named English Cities Fund's- Wakefield One as the joint winner of its 'Best Corporate Workplace' category.

This year's ceremony attracted more than 200 architects, designers, developers and occupiers whose office schemes went head-to-head to win the BCO seal of approval.

Judges described Wakefield One as "the epitome of a modern working environment that fully supports Wakefield Council in providing the highest level of service for local people, whilst offering visitors a welcoming community hub". The contemporary façade has been designed to complement the adjacent Victorian Grade I council building.

Wakefield One was joint winner with 1 Angel Square the Co-Operative's headquarters in Manchester.
